Mental Health & Psychosocial Services (MHPSS) Team Service Provider (field and remote)

OVERVIEW:

Advocates Abroad MHPSS Team is accepting applications from qualified psychologists, trauma therapists, and other medical professionals available to provide psychosocial services remotely and with field teams based in Greece, Italy, Turkey.

Advocates on this team primarily assess and evaluate refugee clients for vulnerability in preparation for the asylum interview. The assessments take place remotely (over Skype or phone) or on site. These Advocates further provide crisis intervention assistance, such as suicide prevention, for all refugees and asylum seekers. Lastly, this team of Advocates provide general mental health and trauma support to the other Advocates volunteers, particularly field-based teams.

COMMITMENT & DURATION:

- The position requires active service for minimum, 15 hours per week.
- The duration of the position is for one month minimum for field teams.
- Training is provided.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Fluency in English, with fluency in Farsi, Arabic, and French highly desirable.
- Demonstrated experience and commitment toward refugee and asylum seeker aid is mandatory, particularly in the European Union.
- Integrity, cultural sensitivity, and ability to maintain confidentiality is mandatory.
- Degree and license in relevant field, such as nursing, social work, psychology, or trauma therapy.
